The Battle Ground church is up and running! I am totally excited to bring you good news about the church. The church, after lying dormant for two years, and after being totally renovated, is open once again serving the community of Battle Ground. This has been a lot of work but now we can say it was worth it! God is already growing a strong church in Battle Ground. The church is coffeehouse in style, but fear not, the message of Christ and His love is priority one. The building is nearly full every Sunday. The support of Liberty Bible has been huge both in resources and volunteer hours. We have been blessed to hire associate pastor Todd McArthur as onsite pastor and worship leader. Together we are working to get to know these new people the Lord has entrusted us with.
