Out of our poverty, His riches…such has been the deepening discovery of our journey together, in Christ. We have dreamed big and reached and been disappointed in what we have failed to attain. Chief among the disappointments has been our inability to carry our full share in paying our SFO's. We know the cost to our friends in WAPAC and our beloved church, international. Even so we will do better, with God's help.

Yet it has been a year of renewal with our neighbors as they have shared in our journey with the homeless by gifting and presence in mission. Our park and church have become a neighborhood gathering place for parties, block meetings and outdoor picnics and movies. We envision a gathering of cultures this coming year and 6 outdoor theatre events. Rev. Lloyd Commander has given generously of his spirit, passion and gifts in helping us minister meaningfully in the city. I also want to thank Rev. Terry Ketchum for his continuing encouragement, prayers, and perspective in mission.

A fresh wind is blowing in worship with repentance at the center. Many who were without homes are finding a safe place in our community. Thank you for your continuing prayers and presence in our mission in Seattle.
