This is my twelfth report for the Washougal Church.

I count it a privilege to pastor such a great and loving congregation. We have had some real answers to prayer this year. We have enjoyed the Divine presence of God in our services and I feel that we are just beginning to see what is going to take place in the Church as we pull together, pray together, and believe together. We serve a great big wonderful God.

The leadership of the Church has worked hard to see the Washougal Church find the mission for which the Church was established. It is our desire to reach out to the community in which the Church resides.

My wife Anne, has stood by and ministered in the places that were needed. Anne is a great inspiration to the Church and its ministries. Without the team working together and praying together we would not be effective.

God has given us some new people, just in the last three weeks that are getting involved in the ministry of the Church. Marvin Russell is working hard in outreach and Sunday School.

We are looking forward to an even greater year in 2009-2010.
